

MAD OVER RELIGION.

Nurse Lewis Would Have Killed a Three-Days-Old Babe.

Mrs. Herrman, the Mother, Lay Helpless in Her Bed.

The Father Arrived Just in Time to Rescue His Child.

Mrs. Kate Lewis, forty years old, was nursing a woman at 39 Perry street, when she became insane early this morning, and after trying to throw a baby out of the fourth-story window was taken to Bellevue Hospital, a prisoner.

Mrs. George Herrman, the wife of a butcher, living in the Perry street house, sent a week ago for Mrs. Lewis to nurse her. Mrs. Lewis lives some distance from the Perry street house, where in thirty-seventh street, Mrs. Lewis went to Mrs. Herrman, and three days ago a child was born to the latter.

Nothing peculiar was noticed about Mrs. Lewis until about 9 o'clock last night. When she and Mrs. Herrman were alone, Mrs. Herrman having gone to work in Washington Market, Mrs. Lewis suddenly began to talk about religious matters, and said there was a devil in her and it must come out. She grew worse as the hours went by. Mrs. Herrman was unable to leave her bed, and was too much frightened to call out.

At 2 o'clock this morning, when Herrman reached his room, and was about to open his door, he heard a frightful scream. Rushing into the room, he found his wife sitting up in bed, and at the open window Mrs. Lewis was standing holding his new-born baby out of the window.

Herrman seized the woman and dragged her into the room, and put the child in a safe place. Then some of the neighbors sent for Policeman Perkins, an ambulance was called, and the woman taken away.

Later the twenty-year-old son of Mrs. Lewis went to the Charles street police station, and told that his mother had been a sufferer from religious mania for some time, but that she had never before been violent.

PRINCETON FOOTBALL.

Recent Additions to the Tigers' Eleven Give Great Promise.

(By Associated Press.)

PRINCETON, Oct. 6.—The Princeton eleven begins to assume definite shape. The dozen of so-called prominent candidates have been weeded out, leaving a majority of the veterans and a few new men. While the men have played in by and hard, there seems to be a lamentable lack of snap for so early in the season.

Brown, of last year's team, and Cochran, a Freshman, are taking care of the ends. Brown, while an earnest, resolute player, is scarcely up to his usual form. Cochran, on the contrary, though a new man, is putting up a steady game and is particularly active in following the ball down the field. Lea is at right-tackle and gets much more position than any man now playing. Wheeler and Taylor occupy right and left tackle respectively.

Taylor's game is not yet what it should be, he seems to lack the push and energy which characterized his playing last season. At center it is a toss-up between Cochran and last year's center, the rush, and Riggs, a younger brother of the famous Jesse. Both are big, strong men, but the year's experience acquired by Cochran under Bailett will probably give him the position.

There is not a lack of material among the Tigers. The new coaches, Hergen, George, Spohn and others, will come to raise the hopes of Old Nassau.

SEEKS AN INHERITANCE.

But Mrs. Rubinstein Is Detained at Ellis Island as a Pauper.

Glitz Breine Rubinstein, forty-seven, widow of Joseph Rubinstein, who died in prison Feb. 14, 1876, a day before he was to have been hanged for the murder of his cousin, Sarah Alexander, is at Ellis Island, detained as a pauper.

Mrs. Rubinstein has come to New York in quest of an alleged bequest of several thousand dollars, the amount, with interest, is now $2,500,000, which she claims to be due to her by a will now said to be in the hands of the Kings County Surrogate.

The woman says that Leibel Pinkelstein, of this city, died in 1876, and that she was his widow. She says that as soon as she landed here the authorities would visit her husband's crime upon her also.

Unless somebody gives $500 bail, guaranteeing that Mrs. Pinkelstein and her sister, Basche Ragolski, who has accompanied her, will not become a burden upon the public, they will be sent back within a few days.

NO ANSWER YET.

But J. Coleman Drayton's Wife Will Probably Defend His Suit.

The answer by Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton to her husband's petition for an absolute divorce was not filed in court today, although with today the legal time for filing such an answer expires.

This does not mean that Mrs. Drayton intends to let the action go by default, as by the mutual consent of Alvan A. Clark, counsel for J. Coleman Drayton, and a Shipman, counsel for Mrs. Drayton, the time for filing such answer has been extended until Nov. 1.

It is authoritatively stated that Mrs. Drayton, who is now in Europe, not only means to defend the suit, but to push with vigor the suit she has instituted to recover the custody of her children.

COUNTY OFFICERS INDICTED.

Three Ohio Men Accused of Accepting Bribes.

(By Associated Press.)

COLUMBUS, Oct. 6.—County Commissioner Thomas J. Cassidy and S. B. Higgins, both Democrats, and J. B. McDonald, Republican, were all indicted yesterday for alleged misconduct in office and on the charge of receiving a bribe of $1,500 each from the Columbus Bridge Company a year ago.

McDonald is also indicted on the charge of soliciting a bribe of $500 from Contractor James J. Jewett and Higgins is accused of soliciting a bribe of $100 from the same party.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a woman, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

SATURDAY'S EVENING WORLD COUPON.

OCTOBER 6, 1894.

By Exceptional Arrangement we are enabled to offer TO THE

Readers of The Evening World

For Only 99 CENTS.

An Excellent Life-Size Crayon Portrait.

16x20.

The following Coupon entitles the holder to one elegant free-hand finished LIFE-SIZE CRAYON PORTRAIT when presented at

The Favorite

PHOTOGRAPHIC STUDIO,

17 Union Sq. (near Tiffany's),

10th St. and Broadway,

New York City, N. Y.

15 Elm Place, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Bring your Photograph and this Coupon to THE FAVORITE PHOTOGRAPHIC STUDIO, 17 Union Sq. (near Tiffany's), 10th St. and Broadway, or to 15 Elm Place, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Deliver to the holder of this coupon one free-hand finished life-size Crayon Portrait, 16x20, for Name of Coupon-Holder.

99 Cents.

GOOD FOR 30 DAYS.

Out-of-town coupon-holders can send orders by mail. Prompt attention assured.

Our Brooklyn readers will undoubtedly find the news of branching the studio to Brooklyn with delight, thus obviously endeavoring to give them with these increased facilities an equal opportunity to avail themselves of this exceptional offer, as to our so numerous New York readers.

STUDIOS OPEN DAILY FROM 9 A. M. TO 6 P. M.

SUNDAYS FROM 10 A. M. TO 3 P. M.

Crayon Portraits are Completed in from 8 to 10 Days.

THE BALMORAL.

Lenox Ave. Boulevard, 113th St. to 114th St.

The following tables show what it costs to live in luxury and happiness in the Balmoral and what it costs in a dingy flat.

BALMORAL EXPENSES.	FLAT EXPENSES.
Rent $10 per month, per week..... $15.00	Rent $10 per month, per week..... $15.00
Servant $16 per month, per week..... 4.00	Servant $16 per month, per week..... 4.00
Gas $5 per month, per week..... 1.50	Gas $5 per month, per week..... 1.50
Coal $4 per month, per week..... 1.00	Coal $4 per month, per week..... 1.00
Meals, 2 in family and servant..... 21.00	Meals, 2 in family and servant..... 21.00
Total..... 34.50	Total..... 34.50
Not counting wear and tear on linen and crockery.	Not counting wear and tear on linen and crockery.

DON'T DECIDE WHERE YOU WILL RESIDE UNTIL YOU HAVE SEEN THE NEW CHOICE APARTMENTS AT THE BALMORAL.

MAC DOWELL & BOGGS, Proprietors.

When the Day is Done

Read the News of the Day.

THE 6 O'CLOCK EVENING WORLD.

Is Right Up to Date in Everything.

COLUMBIA FINALS TO-NIGHT.

Excellent Sport Promised in the Finish of the Tournament.

The final bouts of the Columbia Athletic Club's amateur boxing tournament will be held to-night at Grand Central Palace, Lexington avenue and Forty-fourth street. While Inspector Williams allowed no knockouts at the preliminary Thursday night, some excellent sport is promised for this evening. The men will be far more evenly matched, and the Inspector is quite confident that there will be little cause for interference.

As the 130, 140 and 155 pound classes have not been touched the sport will begin promptly at 7 o'clock, and the bouts follow one another in quick succession.

Referee Regel and the other well-known officials will again act as officials, and fair play is assured each boxer. That the sport in this city anticipate some excellent boxing to-night is evident from the large demand for tickets at the box office yesterday. The Eighth Regiment Band will give a concert at 7:30 o'clock.

A GAME WORTH SEEING.

St. James Versus Acme Baseball for Charity on the Varuna Grounds.

To-morrow afternoon the St. James Union Baseball Club and the Acme will play on the Varuna Boat Club grounds, Fifty-eighth street, Brooklyn, for the benefit of The Evening World Christmas Tree Fund.

Both teams are well known in both this city and Brooklyn. The St. James team is made up of players who are not only strong, but also fast. They are also fast on the base, and are well known for their speed. The Acme team is also a strong one, and is well known for their power.

The game is expected to be a close one, and is well worth the time required to see it.

Too much cannot be said of the kindness of the Varuna Boat Club officials, who have graciously placed the grounds of the club at the service of the baseball teams as soon as the purpose was made known. The game will be called promptly at 3 P. M.

The grounds are easily accessible from the bridge or from Thirty-ninth street, by trolley car direct to the entrance. A nominal charge of 10 cents will be made for a seat.

BASEBALL CHAT.

Mike Tierman is a hero-a veritable giant among Giants. That swipe of his undoubtedly won the game yesterday, and he is the hero of the entire community of Baltimore's entire population.

The game was one of the most exciting, perhaps, of the season, with more intense feeling on both sides among the sympathizers than has ever been known. But there is absolutely no reason why the citizens of the Monumental City should attempt to rescue the glory that is slowly but surely slipping from their grasp, at the point of club or mallet. Those weapons have hitherto been foreign to the game of baseball.

The childishness which has become a trait of the pennant-winners seems to have cast its baneful influence over the managers of the Baltimore team to an extent which renders their position open to honest criticism. That the Von Ber Horsts should take it upon themselves to handle the gate-money which, under the terms of the Temple Cup gift, belongs exclusively to the players, is peculiar in the impression it has conveyed. That an accounting should be rendered, and the greater the price for the Giants as Temple Cup winners.

All New York should "heap coals of fire" upon the Orioles' heads for treating the team with a hospitality which will carry a stigma to the credit of their owners. Their rosters are welcome, they are so numerous. The winners of the pennant, and the greater the price for the Giants as Temple Cup winners.

"Piscon Sunday."

Oct. 25, the last Sunday in the month, has been fixed upon by the Press Association of New York as the date for "Piscon Sunday." The object of its observance is to call the attention of earnest players to the duties of the game, and to the duty of the player to the game, and to the duty of the game to the player.

B. ALTMAN & CO.

LADIES' MERINO AND FLANNEL Underwear Dept.

Comprises a selection of the finest class of goods of superior makers, including ALLEN SOLLY & CO., I. & R. MORLEY, and other popular makes, at Very Moderate Prices.

ALSO

Swiss ribbed Goods of all descriptions, including EQUESTRIENNE TIGHTS and COMBINATION SUITS.

And

LADIES' LAMB WOOL SWEATERS

for steamer, gymnasium, and outdoor pastimes.

H. C. F. KOCH & CO.

125TH ST., WEST.

OPEN

Saturday Nights

TILL 9.30 O'CLOCK.

SPECIAL SALE. TO-DAY ONLY. MEN'S SUITS AND OVERCOATS. 8.90.

GOOD VALUE AT $15.00. LONDON & LIVERPOOL CLOTHING CO., 80 & 82 BOWERY, cor. Hester St. Open Till 11:00 P. M.

7 STORES TOGETHER. COWPERTHWAIT'S.

Park Row and Chatham Squares. FURNITURE, CARPETS, Etc. CASH OR LONG CREDIT.

HOUSES, FLATS, ROOMS.

To Rent or Wanted. Advertise in To-morrow's World.

FREE IN MONDAY'S EVENING WORLD.

BASEBALL CHAT.

Mike Tierman is a hero-a veritable giant among Giants. That swipe of his undoubtedly won the game yesterday, and he is the hero of the entire community of Baltimore's entire population.

The game was one of the most exciting, perhaps, of the season, with more intense feeling on both sides among the sympathizers than has ever been known. But there is absolutely no reason why the citizens of the Monumental City should attempt to rescue the glory that is slowly but surely slipping from their grasp, at the point of club or mallet. Those weapons have hitherto been foreign to the game of baseball.

The childishness which has become a trait of the pennant-winners seems to have cast its baneful influence over the managers of the Baltimore team to an extent which renders their position open to honest criticism. That the Von Ber Horsts should take it upon themselves to handle the gate-money which, under the terms of the Temple Cup gift, belongs exclusively to the players, is peculiar in the impression it has conveyed. That an accounting should be rendered, and the greater the price for the Giants as Temple Cup winners.

All New York should "heap coals of fire" upon the Orioles' heads for treating the team with a hospitality which will carry a stigma to the credit of their owners. Their rosters are welcome, they are so numerous. The winners of the pennant, and the greater the price for the Giants as Temple Cup winners.

"Piscon Sunday."

Oct. 25, the last Sunday in the month, has been fixed upon by the Press Association of New York as the date for "Piscon Sunday." The object of its observance is to call the attention of earnest players to the duties of the game, and to the duty of the player to the game, and to the duty of the game to the player.

meeting held Tuesday in Brooklyn, has received a large number of letters from many influential writers and editors, and the annual men, who expressed themselves in favor of the consolidation of the two cities, and proposed to contribute liberally to the fund.

The movement towards annexation in Mount Vernon has taken the form of an exceedingly lively campaign with which Mount Vernon has been identified. The annual men, who expressed themselves in favor of the consolidation of the two cities, and proposed to contribute liberally to the fund.

Meetings have been held in Mount Vernon favorable to the proposition to annex this city to the city of New York. The annual men, who expressed themselves in favor of the consolidation of the two cities, and proposed to contribute liberally to the fund.

The opposition to the movement held its first public mass-meeting, there last evening at the R. F. D. Avenue Opera House, under the auspices of the League, which was organized "Mount Vernon Home League."

The President, Charles H. Wilson, presided. The speaker of the evening was County Judge Isaac N. Mills, who is also a member of the city of Mount Vernon. The speaker undertook to show that the residents of Mount Vernon governing themselves under a separate government, and in the way of home government, and needed improvements that they could have from the city of New York. He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past.

He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past. He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past.

He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past. He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past.

He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past. He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past.

He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past. He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past.

He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past. He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past.

He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past. He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past.

He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past. He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past.

He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past. He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past.

He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past. He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past.

He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past. He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past.

He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past. He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past.

He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past. He said that the city of New York was a city of the future, and that the city of Mount Vernon was a city of the past.

TO JOIN CITIES TOGETHER.

Greater New York Commissioners Will Discuss Plans in City Hall Next Week for a Mass-Meeting.

ALL SEEM TO BE MOST JUBILANT.

Statens Islanders to Meet at Prohibition Park Tuesday—George J. Greenfield Vice President.

A meeting of the Commissioners of the Greater New York Commission, of which Andrew H. Green is President, will be held next week in the Aldermanic Chamber in City Hall. The meeting is to be held for the purpose of discussing the plans of the great mass meeting which the promoters of the Greater New York scheme intend to hold in the large hall in Cooper Union. It is practically agreed that this mass meeting will be held within the next two weeks.

Albert E. Henschel, Secretary of the Greater New York Commission, returned to this city yesterday. He had been in the city of Mount Vernon, where he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme. He said that his consultation with Mr. Green was quite satisfactory and that he had found him quite enthusiastic over the Greater New York scheme.

THE WAR PRESIDENT.

Anecdotes of Lincoln Related by Representative Bundy.

Representative Bundy, of Ohio, enjoys among other things two distinct reputations. He is the father-in-law of Judge Foraker, the noted Republican from the Buckeye State,